Lesson Thirteen – Sharing a Secret

1. Think of a time when someone told you a secret. Did you keep the secret or share it? _____
2. Write down a reaction you might feel if someone to whom you gave a gift said they didn't need your gift. _____

3. According to 1 Timothy 6:6, what is counted as great gain? _____

4. Name something that you own that you would like to take with you when you die. _____

5. What physical items does Paul consider necessary for contentment? (1 Timothy 6:8) _____

6. Contentment comes from being thankful and satisfied with the blessings we have. Answer the following questions to evaluate your contentment:
 - A. Do you enjoy what you have? _____
 - B. Do you refuse to worry about tomorrow? _____
 - C. Do you regularly and joyfully offer thanksgiving to God? _____
 - D. Do you rejoice at the prosperity of other people? _____
7. Contentment comes from learning to be sustained by God's strength and not our own. How does Paul state this truth in Philippians 4:13? _____

8. What is clearly seen when we are weak and dependent? (2 Corinthians 12:9) _____

9. Contentment comes from learning to be fully surrendered to God's will. Write Philippians 1:20-21 in your own words. _____

I can rejoice in anything when Christ is everything.
